FEMALE VOCALIST OF THE YEAR KIMIÉ MINER RELEASES NEW SINGLE ‘YOU ARE MY SUNSHINE’ ON HAKU RECORDS

HONOLULU, HAWAI‘I —

Recording artist Kimié Miner released the first single, You Are My Sunshine today off the upcoming Haku Collective compilation album set to release in May of 2019. The Hawaiian Lullaby album (still untitled) will be released on Miner’s new record company, Haku Records. The album will comprise of popular lullabies and other love songs for little ones sung in both the English and Hawaiian language. The compilation album will feature Hawai‘i’s top artists like Anuheā, The Green, Kapena, Paula Fuga, Josh Tatoi, Kaumaka‘iwa Kanaka‘ole and more!

You Are My Sunshine was co-produced by Imua Garza under Haku Collective. The new single is another cherished memento for Miner having recorded it and the entire album while she is pregnant with her second child, due in June of 2019. This children’s album will be the second LP released under Haku Record’s independent label; The first LP being Miner’s multiple awarded LP, Proud As the Sun.

2018 was an exciting year for Haku’s founder, a proud new mother, who accepted the Nā Hōkū Hanohano awards for Female Vocalist of the Year and Song of the Year with her daughter on her hip. Miner also took home the award for Female Solo Artist of the Year at the inaugural Island Music Awards.
